2. What to do if you receive a damaged or defective product?

If you have received a damaged or defective product, or if you are not happy with the product quality, you can return or replace the product.

Note:

- Items listed on H&M India that are identified as 'returnable' on the product detail page and within the 'return window' period are eligible. Eligible products show a logo on the product details page with the return window and return category (Example: 10 Days Returnable, 7 Days Return & Exchange). Visit the Returns Policy to learn more.
- Replacement or exchange of products is based on the availability of products.

- There are different processes of return and replacement for products fulfilled by H&M and products fulfilled by third-party (Marketplace) sellers. To know the seller details, check the product detail page. For third-party sellers, you can also Contact the seller. Visit the Return/Replacement FAQs page to learn more.

3. How to return a damaged product Fulfilled by H&M?

1. Go to Your Orders.
2. Select the product that you want to return.
3. Click on Return/Replace items.
4. Choose a reason to return.
5. Continue and proceed as per the on-screen instructions.
6. Refer to the How to schedule a Return page for instructions.

Note:

- We might require a clear image for verifying that the product is damaged or defective. Visit the Add Photos: Frequently Asked Questions page to learn how to upload images.
- Item will be picked up as per the scheduled pickup date and time, which will be communicated via email and visible in Your Orders.
- If your address is not covered by our courier partners, you will need to return the item using any courier. Visit Return Pick-up and Self-Ship Guidelines to learn more.

4. How to return a damaged product sold by a third-party seller?

1. Go to Your Orders.
2. Choose an item that you want to return or replace.
3. Select Contact seller (Contact the seller). You will be directed to the Seller Messaging Assistant.
4. Select the appropriate option and start the conversation.
5. If a seller fails to address your query in three business days, the H&M A-to-z Guarantee is available to you.

Note: The following items and situations are not covered under the H&M A-to-Z Guarantee:

- Digital merchandise
- Credit card payments where the issuing bank has initiated a chargeback
- If the product you received is a gift order and the outer box is damaged, you can place a request for replacement.
- Some products may not be eligible for return. Check the returns policy for more details.
- Returning items with personal data: if you're returning a mobile phone, camera, or any other storage device, remove any passwords and personal data before returning it. Don't send personal accessories not originally included with the item when purchased, for example, cases or external memory cards purchased separately.

5. How to replace a damaged product?

1. Go to Your Orders.
2. Select the product that you want to replace.
3. Click on Return/Replace items.
4. Choose a reason to replace.
5. Continue and proceed as per on-screen instructions.

Replacement will not be possible if the item you selected is out of stock. In such cases you can return the product and a refund will be generated. For items sold by a third-party seller, Contact the seller to request a replacement.

6. How will the refunded money be credited?

The refund timeline depends on the mode of refund chosen by you. You can choose to receive the refund in your H&M Pay Balance, original payment method or to your bank account.

- If you chose "Pay on delivery" while placing an order, you can choose refund to H&M Pay Balance or bank account.
- For H&M Pay balance, the refund will be credited to your H&M Pay Balance account.
- For bank account refunds, ensure that you add your bank account details where you wish to receive the refund. The refund is processed via NEFT/IMPS and credited to your bank account within 5 business days from the date of refund initiation.

To add your bank account through the website:

1. Go to Your Orders.
2. Click on the order you want to return.
3. Select the Return or Replacement items option.
4. Select 'Refund to your bank account'.
5. Select 'Choose a bank account'.
6. Select 'Add a new bank account', and enter your bank account details.

7. What is the time window for initiating a return or replacement?

The time window for initiating a replacement is the same as the return window for that product category. For example, if the product has a return window of 30 days, a replacement will also have to be initiated within the same period of 30 days. Visit the Replacement Policy to learn more.

8. What to do if renewed products are damaged?

If you have received a damaged renewed product, you can initiate a return or replacement through the Your Orders page. You will be required to upload all-sided images of the product received. Make sure the images are taken with the product placed at least 8 inches from the camera. Along with the images, provide the invoice details. To know more about renewed products, check the H&M Renewed page.

9. What can I do if I receive a wrong item?

You can return or request a replacement for the wrong item. Please ensure the item is in its original condition and still in its packaging to be eligible for a return. For items sold by a third-party seller, Contact the seller. For more information, refer to the Help page: Wrong Product Delivered.
